5. RESPONSIBILITY

I declare that:

- I acknowledge my authorship of decisions affecting the Product and the Process,
- I am able to link execution to my own declaration,
- I bear responsibility for coherence between intention and execution.

I understand Responsibility as a condition of the credibility of quality in all three dimensions of assessment: Product, Process, and Attitude.

5a. DECLARATION OF WORK ETHICS AND CONDITIONS OF ORIGIN

(independent point; optional section for Regional Products)

I declare that my way of working is based on the principles of Work Ethics, including:

- a fair and responsible approach to my own Work and the Work of persons co-creating the Process,
- respect for time, competences, and working conditions,
- transparency of decisions affecting the character of the Product.

In the case of using raw materials of animal origin (applies to Regional Products – underline as appropriate), I declare that:

- I pay attention to the conditions of their origin,
- I take animal welfare into account as an element of responsible practice,
- I make decisions in a conscious and explainable manner.

I understand Work Ethics and conditions of origin as an element of Attitude, and not as a set of image-based declarations.

6. COMPLIANCE WITH THE PIEROGI.ORG® CERTIFICATION PRINCIPLES

I declare that:

- I understand that PIEROGI.ORG® certification does not compare styles or tastes,
- I accept the principle of verifying implementation solely in relation to my own declaration,
- I accept the principle declaration → execution as the basis of certification.

I am aware that the PIEROGI.ORG® Certificate confirms the coherence of practice, not a comparative evaluation.
